

ALABAMA REPORTER.

TALLADEGA, ALA.

THURSDAY, June 1, 1865.

FOR GOVERNOR COL. M. J. BULGER.

Our terms of subscription and advertising will be changed to suit the change in currency. Persons indebted to the Reporter, either for subscription or advertisements, and who prefer to do can pay in provisions.

POLITICAL ARRESTS.

We understand that Ex-Governor A. D. Moore of this State, and Geo. W. Gayle of Cahawba, have been arrested and sent to Montgomery. The former charged with the seizure of the Forts, arsenals and other property of the United States within the limits of the State of Alabama before the act of secession. The latter charged with being the author of an advertisement published in the "Selma Dispatch" over the signature of X, proposing to raise a million of dollars with the view to making peace in a given time and suggesting the killing of Presidents Lincoln, Seward and Johnson.

Railroad in Operation.

The train is again running on the Ala. & Tenn. Railroad. They came through from Selma for the first time on Monday last. The valley creek bridge West of Selma has been completed since that time and we presume the rolling stock of the road will be brought over at once and the regular daily trips be resumed.

The completion of the road will be a great relief to our people. It will enable Gen. Chrysler to bring up from the south the supplies for his garrison. We also learn that Judge Thornton went down the trail on Tuesday for the purpose of making arrangements to bring up a large supply of corn which he had previously purchased for the judgment families of the County. If he succeeds it will relieve many who are reported to be suffering for the want of bread. J. W. Fifeenwider, who has been a favorite ever since the road was built, brought up on Tuesday quite a basket of old mail matter, letters, papers, &c., chiefly of dates about the last of March and first of April. Unfortunately they bring but a small quantum of news. This we presume was not John's fault however, as he generally brings all that is on hand.

We hope to see the Post Office at Talladega reopened in a short time and the mail bringing us a regular supply of news. At present a man with a letter paper creates a sensation wherever he goes. Friends receiving late papers in this quarter of the world, will confer in favor of us and our readers by giving us an opportunity to re publish such items as may be of special interest.

The Trans-Mississippi.

We have reliable information from the Trans-Mississippi of a very definite character.

The mission of Col. Sprague, U. S. A., to Lieut. Gen. Kirby Smith, has not resulted in anything as yet, owing to the impossibility of securing concurrence in the military councils of the Confederates.

Gen. Smith was disposed to surrender, but the generals commanding Missouri troops, Parsons and Shelby, demanded amnesty for themselves, which is not accorded in the proclamation of the President.

Col. Sprague returned on the B. L. Hodge, and is accompanied by a Missouri Colonel, who goes with him to Washington, to confer with the authorities on this subject. If the Generals are not included in the amnesty they propose to join Maximilian.

See Advertisement of Capt. Beck, Provoit Marshal at this Post.

Gen. Kirby Smith and General Buckner both made speeches on the 18th to their troops in favor of continuing the war. The wives of these Generals came down on the flag of truce boat; Mrs. Smith on her way to Lynchburg, Va., and Mrs. Buckner to Kentucky.

The Louisiana troops are deserting in great numbers and returning to their homes. The people are generally dispondent.

Cotton can be bought very low for gold. Several boats are loaded ready to come out of Red River, as soon as permitted.

The parish of Ayovelle, from Alexandria down, is overflowed.

Another flag of truce boat is to come down on the 24th. Nothing had been heard on Red River of Hood's crossing the Mississippi.—[N. O. Mooney.

North Carolina.

A PROCLAMATION BY GOVERNOR VANCE.

The Raleigh Standard of the 3d gives an account of Union meetings in many prominent cities of that State, and announces others. It also repudiates Gov.

Vance, and says: Let the people meet together and commune freely, in the face of the sun and in the eye of light.

They are now free. No bastiles frown and no conscript officer stands ready to hurry his victim in hounds to the front.

We are once more Americans, all; let us rejoice that this is so, and let us take the necessary steps to reorganize our Government, to rest the broken ligaments of social order, and move forward once more in that career of prosperity and glory in which we were so rudely and ruinously interrupted by the recent civil war.

The following is published in the Raleigh papers of the 3d instant:

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA,

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,

Greensborough, April 28, 1865.

Whereas, By the recent surrender of the principal armies of the Confederate States, further resistance to the forces of the United States has become vain, and masters Department would result in a useless waste of blood;

Whereas, All the natural disorders attendant upon the disbanding of large armies are upon us, and the country is filled with numerous bands of citizens and soldiers disposed to do violence to persons and property.

Now, therefore, I, Zebulon R. Vance, Governor of the State of North Carolina, in the sincere hope of averting some of the many evils which threaten us, do issue this my proclamation, commanding all such persons to abstain from any and all acts of lawlessness; to avoid assembling together in crowds in all towns and cities, or doing anything whatsoever calculated to cause excitement, and earnestly appealing to all good citizens who are now at home, to remain there, and to all soldiers of this State, to retire quietly to their homes, and avert themselves in preserving order, should it become necessary for the protection of citizens. I also appeal to the good and true soldiers of North Carolina whether they have been surrendered and paroled, or otherwise to unite themselves together in sufficient numbers, in the various counties of the State, under the superintendence of the civil magistrates thereof, to elect or stay any bodies of lawless or unprincipled men who may be committing depredations upon the peaceable citizens, assuring them that it will be no violation of the parole to do so, and I would assure my fellow-citizens generally, that under God I will do all that may be in my power, to settle the Government of the State, to restore the civil authority in her borders, and to further the great ends of peace, domestic tranquillity and the general welfare of the people. Without their aid I am powerless to do anything.

By the Governor,

M. McPHETORS, Private Sec'y.

In this place on Friday, the 26th inst., Mrs. AMANDA TERRY, wife of Maj. Wm. Terry.

In this place, on Tuesday, the 30th inst., Mrs. FANNIE DAVIDSON, consort of Col. James Davidson, and daughter of Mrs. G. Barley.
